

House Resolution No. 363

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State students who have admirably dedicated their lives and energy to assisting others; and

Whereas, John Jabouri of Fenton, Missouri, is a fourteen-year-old sophomore at Chaminade College Preparatory School in St. Louis and one of six top youth volunteers in the state of Missouri to receive an annual Prudential Spirit of Community Distinguished Finalist Award in 2003; and

Whereas, selected on the basis of an independent, service-oriented project, John Jabouri will receive an engraved bronze medallion in honor of his status as a state Distinguished Finalist who collected more than 17,000 gently-used books and distributed them to Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital; and

Whereas, now in its eighth year, the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards is a nationwide program honoring young people for outstanding acts of volunteerism; and

Whereas, the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards are sponsored by Prudential Financial companies, which offer a variety of insurance, mutual funds, retirement, and other related products and services, and the National Association of Secondary School Principals, the preeminent organization and national voice for middle level and high school principals, assistant principals, and aspiring school leaders; and

Whereas, John Jabouri was nominated for the Prudential Spirit of Community Award by Chaminade College Preparatory School as one of 24,000 applicants submitted nationwide for this year's competitive program which values such outstanding criteria as personal initiative, creativity, effort, impact, and personal growth:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of John Jabouri as a Missouri Distinguished Finalist by the 2003 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of John Jabouri of Chaminade College Preparatory School.
